QUESTIONS

1. Why blame the weakest members of society instead of the powerful people who run it?
2. Why argue about what “might be” when we “know” our food, air and water are poisoned?
3. Why blame people for their decisions without looking at who gives them their opinions?
4. Why accept failing and expensive healthcare instead of asking why we keep getting sicker?
5. Why believe politicians and media who’ve lied before instead of just finding honest people?
6. Why accept problems can’t be solved when organizations get billions in funds to solve them?
7. Why blame children for bad behaviour instead of who controls what they’re taught and fed?
8. Why blame each other for pollution when we used to know corporations were far worse?
9. Why accept being selfish to be happy when as children we knew the opposite was true?
10. Why accept that the media can lie and keep their jobs unless we accept their job is to lie?
